Participant Feedback

"I always appreciate the space that these workshops make for faculty to discuss teaching with one another. It is such a great way to connect folks from across disciplines and work together to enhance each other's teaching approaches and toolkits."

-Faculty workshop attendee

"I loved the organization of the workshop! It was the perfect balance of new information, examples, interactive brainstorming, and review/next-steps."

-Graduate student workshop attendee

"It was great to talk to other participants about their experiences, concerns, and challenges with active learning. Getting to reflect on these ideas and suggested readings or articles was really helpful, and hearing from experts on how to start these conversations was a major plus."

-Teaching & Learning Complex Workshop series participant

"Thank you so much for the program. It was truly career-altering. I hope my students will benefit from what I have learned, because I know I have."
